Runner-up Game: Kake 37, Skagway 30: The Lady Panthers could never get a run going in this game after falling behind early to the T-birds, who led by as many as eight points in the second quarter. After Herbig made a big 3-pointer and Ellis got a steal and a lay-up toward the end of the half, cutting the lead to 20-17, Skagway appeared to be ready to take charge. However, the Lady Panthers came out flat in the third quarter, missing its first four shots and netting only three points in the quarter. Two big treys by Tanea Alsop pushed the T-bird lead to 29-20.

Ellis scored the first two buckets of the final quarter, giving Skagway some hope, but Kake countered and the Lady Panthers hit another drought midway through the quarter, at one point missing four shots in one possession. Kake got some big buckets from its forwards and led by as many as 10 with 90 seconds to play. A trey by Paige Hahn with 12 seconds left made it a little closer. She led Skagway with 10 points (other scoring unavailable), but the team shot just 8-for-47 from the floor and missed numerous lay-ups.

"Nothing's for sure, nothing's given," said Labesky, adding that her girls did not want to go out that way and were ready to play another game.

The girls finished with an overall record of 15-6. Three girls made the all-conference team: Paige Hahn, Jessie Ellis and Emily Herbig. Seniors Korsmo and Cierra Hahn made the senior all-academic team, and Korsmo and Kaitlyn Surdyk were on the region good-sports team.

"It's too bad for Tess and CC," Labesky said. "They had a great year and this was their one chance to go to State.

BOYS GAME REPORTS

Quarterfinals: Yakutat 67, Skagway 60. This tourney opening battle among the region's fourth and fifth seeds featured eight lead changes before Skagway lost two starters to fouls in the final quarter. Skagway took the lead briefly 8-7 in the first quarter on guard Thomas Etue's reverse lay-up and then again just before half-time on a pair of free throws, but a three-pointer by Yakutat tied it 38-38.

After Skagway took the lead 45-44 midway through the third period, Yakutat got some easy transition buckets to recapture the lead at the end of the quarter. The started out the final quarter with buckets by Mich and Jake Henriksen to go up 55-52, but Yakutat with some key steals, rebounds and buckets by Adams. Skagway lost Henriksen with about three to play, and then forward Josh Cotton with about a play. A three-point play by Brent Beckner got the to four with 45 seconds to go, but Yakutat conv throws to seal the win. SGY- Beckner 19, Henr Etue 12, Herbig 8, Wilson 4, Cotton 2; YAK- A Jackson 19, C. Ivers 10, K. Ivers 3, Munoz 3.

Consolation round: Skagway 56, Kake 40. secured its first tourney win since 2003 with a so half performance. The Panthers opened with ignited by three big steals and a block by Cotton, birds clawed back to actually take the lead tw second quarter. After leading 27-26 at the half, Sk together a nice run as Henriksen nailed three ju scored a lay-up in the third quarter. The Panthers eight-point lead into the final quarter, and kept se seniors Nate Herbig and Lachlan Dennis providi off the bench. With a big lead down the stre Wassman was able to empty his bench.

The tourney win was a long time coming, and the Panthers to an even greater performance i game. SGY (unofficial) - Wilson 15, Henriksen 13 Etue 7, Cotton 6, Beckner 4, Dennis 2. KAF unavailable).

Consolation semifinal: Skagway 76, Klawoc
This Saturday morning game was the most exci year for Skagway fans that made the trip to Ketc many listening at home. It was almost a home Klawock which drew a big following from nearby Wales Island, but Skagway fans were making jus noise. Wilson, after being out with an ankle injury half of the regular season, saved his big performance for just the right time. In addition scoring game, he played great defense on Ryan A of the league's best players.

Skagway battled back from being down by ei first quarter to take the lead at the half, 39-37, a trey by freshman Bryce Jones. Wilson had 21 po half, connecting on all of his drives to the b
